PROPOSED PROJECT NAME:

A Diary of Our Culture

PROJECT DESCRIPTION / SUMMARY

The "Diary of Our Culture" project will allow the students to collect and edit information about the everyday life of the students. They will exchange information about the cultural events and customs, introducing historical and natural beauties of the participating countries. At the same time, the students will discuss about the problems teenagers may face which can be a way of getting to know the world. They will share thoughts, ideas, photos and all the facts about their countries for better intercultural learning. There will be a web page established so the participants can put their stories and regional information as well as pictures through blogs. When decided what should be published by the members, it can be send to the project co-ordinator to publish it on the webpage. Additionally, the students can also contact each other via the cyberspace.

RATIONALE FOR THE PROJECT:

As we all want to live in a safety world, we should be working together in peace, and the only way to improve our relationships is to learn and understand each other.

EXPECTED CONTRIBUTION FROM ASIAN SCHOOLS/STUDENTS:

To exchange information on cultural events, such as beliefs, ceremonies habits, festivals and their roots, through photos and stories about the natural and historical beauties of the region. The students will also discuss with the peers about their life. etc.
