PROPOSED PROJECT NAME:

Folklore Galore

PROJECT DESCRIPTION / SUMMARY

The project highlights the richness and timeless culture of the town/country of each participant through unraveling the place's myths, legends, literature, local poetry, and folklore. The project stands on the principle that is "to be able to create peace and international friendship". Each country's culture shall be enriched through activities like online storytelling and uploading of photos/videos related to their local literature on the project's official site. Participating teams are also encouraged to share their local folklore throughout the Asia-Europe continents by uploading theatrical presentations to widen the scope of cultural advancement.

RATIONALE FOR THE PROJECT:

In the inexistence of scientific information of any kind, long ago civilizations all over the world devised creation, legends, renaissance myths, and multifaceted systems of mystical beings, each with specific powers, and stories about their actions. Classes in history, social studies, literature of folklore is to substantiate an existing social system and to account its rites and customs. In other words, this project is looking forward for the understanding that WIDE SPECTRUM OF TALES is the root of one's culture and civilisation.

EXPECTED CONTRIBUTION FROM ASIAN SCHOOLS/STUDENTS:

Since Asia's history is as diverse as its terrain, this culture of what we deem to be fictional characters or stories are to be widespread. Asian schools could surely express their belief or rich history bound creatures or legends.
